

March 31, 1942.

Mr. Mark Challenor,
312 West 122nd St.,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Challenor:

Please pardon my long delay in not answering your very kind invitation, but I have been out of the City a great deal on business for the baseball.

I cannot say definitely that I will be able to attend the dinner, but I will certainly make every effort to be present. We open our season here in Newark the first Sunday in May and the dinner date is just during the time when I may have to do almost anything. I sincerely hope I will be able to be with you.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ